Mr. Donald H. Blevins, Chief Probation Officer
Alameda County Probation Department
400 Broadway
Oakland, CA 94607

RE: Public Records Act Request

Dear Mr. Blevins,

Pursuant to the Public Records Act, California Government Code § 6250, et seq., we request copies of all public records, including memoranda, correspondence, reports, electronic transmissions, or other writings as defined in California Government Code § 6252, subdivision (c), regarding Alameda County Probation Department juvenile clients. For purposes of this request, “juvenile” or “children” means persons under the age of 18.

Specifically, we seek the following information:

1. The most recent data regarding the number of children under juvenile court jurisdiction pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code § 602 and who have been diagnosed as developmentally disabled, including but not limited to those children diagnosed with mental retardation, autism, Asperger syndrome, Fragile X syndrome, or cerebral palsy, or as disabled under 20 U.S.C. § 1401(3)(A) and 34 C.F.R. § 300.7, including but not limited to speech or language impaired, seriously emotionally disturbed, learning disabled, severely orthopedically impaired, hearing impaired, visually impaired, or otherwise health impaired.
2. For the children identified in #1 above, a statistical breakdown of their involvement with the juvenile justice system, if possible, by the following categories. (If these are not the categories used by the Alameda County Probation Department, please advise us as to the appropriate categories used):
  - a. children who are on probation
  - b. children who are held in secure facilities (including county juvenile halls, camps, or state Department of Juvenile Justice facilities)
  - c. children who are held in non-secure placements (including county non-secure placements and Department of Juvenile Justice non-secure placements)
  - d. children who are on parole
  - e. children who are classified as on “diversion” (including placements secured through Regional Centers, non-wardship probation, deferred entry of judgment, and informal supervision) from the juvenile justice system
3. For the juveniles identified in #1 above, a statistical breakdown by race/ethnicity, age, and gender.

4. For the juveniles identified in #1 above, a statistical breakdown by diagnosed disability and/or disabilities
5. For the juveniles identified in #1 above, a breakdown of those with current Individual Educational Plans (IEPs) according to special education eligibility categories
6. In addition, we seek copies of any and all special education manuals or policy guidelines developed by your office for the service of juveniles as identified in #1 above.

I look forward to your response within the ten-day time frame mandated by California Government Code § 6253. The Youth Law Center is a non-profit legal services organization and we do not charge our clients for our services. This information is sought for educational and public interest purposes. We therefore request a waiver of any copying charges.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this request, feel free to contact me at (415) 543-3379 ext. 3910. Please forward this request to any and all persons in your department who can assist in complying with this request. I thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this request.

RE: Public Records Act Request

Dear Ms. Mitchell,

Pursuant to the Public Records Act, California Government Code § 6250, et seq., we request copies of all public records, including memoranda, correspondence, reports, electronic transmissions, or other writings as defined in California Government Code § 6252, subdivision (c), regarding Santa Clara County Probation Department juvenile clients. For purposes of this request, “juvenile” or “children” means persons under the age of 18.

Specifically, we seek the following information:

1. The most recent data regarding the number of children under juvenile court jurisdiction pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code § 602 and who have been diagnosed as developmentally disabled, including but not limited to those children diagnosed with mental retardation, autism, Asperger syndrome, Fragile X syndrome, or cerebral palsy, or as disabled under 20 U.S.C. § 1401(3)(A) and 34 C.F.R. § 300.7, including but not limited to speech or language impaired, seriously emotionally disturbed, learning disabled, severely orthopedically impaired, hearing impaired, visually impaired, or otherwise health impaired.
2. For the children identified in #1 above, a statistical breakdown of their involvement with the juvenile justice system, if possible, by the following categories. (If these are not the categories used by the Santa Clara County Probation Department, please advise us as to the appropriate categories used):
  - a. children who are on probation
  - b. children who are held in secure facilities (including county juvenile halls, camps, or state Department of Juvenile Justice facilities)
  - c. children who are held in non-secure placements (including county non-secure placements and Department of Juvenile Justice non-secure placements)
  - d. children who are on parole
  - e. children who are classified as on “diversion” (including placements secured through Regional Centers, non-wardship probation, deferred entry of judgment, and informal supervision) from the juvenile justice system
3. For the juveniles identified in #1 above, a statistical breakdown by race/ethnicity, age, and gender.

4. For the juveniles identified in #1 above, a statistical breakdown by diagnosed disability and/or disabilities
5. For the juveniles identified in #1 above, a breakdown of those with current Individual Educational Plans (IEPs) according to special education eligibility categories
6. In addition, we seek copies of any and all special education manuals or policy guidelines developed by your office for the service of juveniles as identified in #1 above.

I look forward to your response within the ten-day time frame mandated by California Government Code § 6253. The Youth Law Center is a non-profit legal services organization and we do not charge our clients for our services. This information is sought for educational and public interest purposes. We therefore request a waiver of any copying charges.
